

Vice Provost & Dean of Undergraduate Education Vision Seminar

Dr. Theodorea Regina Berry

Friday, January 20, 2023

Overview

- The opportunities and challenges facing undergraduate education in the next several years.
- Specific opportunities and challenges at UCR
- Undergraduate Education at UCR: Vision into Action

Opportunities and Challenges of Undergraduate Education

► Opportunities

- Research universities have a culture of inquiry, creativity, and discovery.
- An evolution in the perspective of academic success/teaching
- Raising the profile of high-impact practices

► Challenges

- Research universities serving fewer Black/Latinx students
- Six year completion rates are significantly lower for Black/Latinx students
- Enrollment of Pell-eligible students has decreased

Opportunities and Challenges at UCR

- Steady increase in overall graduation rate
- Black Faculty percentages on par with Black student enrollment (3.9% total)/UIA Black Student Success Initiative
- Significant numbers of URM students (36.1% Chicano/Latinx; 3% Black/African American)
- No. 1, Social Mobility
- Retention and graduation rates, time to degree for FTIC Black and Latinx students
- 2-3 yr. Graduation rates (50%, 78.5%) Black Xfer students,
- Chicano/Latinx faculty (9.8%) far below Chicano/Latinx student enrollment
- Advising support

Undergraduate Education at UCR: Vision into Action

- Accountability: Account, Continue, Assess/Evaluate
 - Program/Office Listing, Assessment, and Evaluation
 - Research Center on Academic Success and URM Students
- Engagement: Academic Success/Student Success and Faculty
 - Campus-wide Dialogues
 - Academic Senate
- Partnerships: Attributes for Consideration and Alignment
 - UERU/2030 Boyer Commission Report
 - University Innovation Alliance (UIA)/Black Student Success
 - Hispanic-Serving Research Universities

Vision to Promise: SEE

- Support
 - Investigate the possibility of a case management/IEP approach
- Engagement
 - Student/family engagement
 - Faculty engagement
- Enhancement
 - The road to career/graduate school

Q&A