LIBRARY EXPERIENCE

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY – SAN BERNARDINO

Dean of Libraries   August 2022-present

Lead the libraries of CSUSB including the main campus San Bernardino facility and the Palm Desert location. Provide vision, planning, budgeting for 21 classified staff and 13 faculty librarians. Manage a budget of $4.8M including staffing, operations, and collections. As a member of the Provost's Leadership Team, collaborate with Associate Provosts, deans, and directors.

Significant projects and initiatives:

- Post-flood mitigation and renovation: after September 2022 tropical storm damage to first floor and basement of Pfau building created alternate site service point. The transformation to the First Floor Commons was completed in September 2023 and celebrated at a Grand Opening event
- Recruitment and hire of key positions 2022-2023: Technology Librarian and Instruction Librarian. Supported the Technology Librarian in revitalizing and growing Makerspace through departmental partnerships and regional technology fairs; supported the Instruction Librarian in the student Library Ambassadors program and new workshop series
- Planning: Member of university level Strategic Plan Student Success Working Group and Student Success Implementation Group; launched Library Strategic Planning Committee for plan launching in Fall 2025
- University Strategic Plans funded projects include Diversity in Collections and Student-Parent support (Library Survival Kits for Parents Studying with Children)
- Programming includes partnership with First Peoples Center for author talk and workshop on Indigenous representation in children's literature
- Created and recruited Library Service Specialist position to support increased diversity programming and outreach

- Created library-sponsored Provost Presents Faculty Research series, showcasing new research from faculty from all colleges
- Growing CSUSB engagement with networks and consortia: Coalition for Networked Information (CNI speaker featured at Grand Opening, conducted professional development sessions with tenure track librarians), SPARC (supported CSUSB Scholarly Communication Librarian as a SPARC Visiting Program Officer), and SCELC's Shared Print program
- Scholarly Communications: designed and recruited CSUSB's first dedicated Scholarly Communications Librarian in 2024 leading to NSF grant to build capacity for research data management in the CSU system. Contributed to revitalizing the CSU Council of Library Deans Scholarly Communications Committee during term as Vice Chair
- Enrollment support: added and improved library presence at Choose CSUSB day, orientation, added K-12 events at the library including History Day support in special collections to give students access to primary resources for Inland Empire History
- Fundraising: created a donor menu, current academic year gifts include funding for newspaper electronic archives and a new fund for special collections

CENTRAL WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Dean of Libraries   February 2019-July 2022
Interim Dean, School of Graduate Studies and Research   January 2022-July 2022

Lead the libraries of CWU including the main campus Brooks facility and two CWU Center locations on a budget averaging $3.2M. Provide vision, planning, budgeting for 21 classified staff, 11 faculty librarians, 2 exempt staff, and 3 graduate assistants. As a member of the Provost's Council, collaborate with Associate Provosts, deans, and directors of CWU towards student success. Grow library donor engagement.

Provide interim leadership for the School of Graduate Studies and Research including leading task force on future of graduate studies at CWU in spring 2022, recruitment of research and grants support staff.

Significant projects and initiatives:

- Recruitment and hire of key positions 2019-2021 (Associate Dean, Arts & Humanities Librarian, First Year & Transfer Experience Librarian, Digital Initiatives staff)
- Lead creation of a strategic plan for 2021-2023
- Diversity in the Collections Initiative, expanding primary resources by diverse authors
- COVID-19 services planning and implementation; CWU Reopening Team for Fall 2020 and Fall 2021; IMLS American Rescue Plan grant supporting community mental health resources and programming

- NEH CARES grant partnership with the College of Arts & Humanities: Preserving Central Washington University's Engaged Humanities Pedagogy, creation of the Pacific Northwest's first EthicsLab, and Digital Scholarship, Post-COVID, 2020-2021
- Designed and recruited CWU Libraries' first Diversity Resident position, which conducted a study of first-generation college students use of library services
- Created library-hosted Provost Presents Faculty Research series
- Partnerships with Veterans' Center include IMLS grant for library-led Veterans' Book Club
- Grew CWU engagement with national networks including CNI, HathiTrust, SPARC, Lever Press, and SCELC. Joined SCELC's Shared Print program, which made collection management more flexible and improved interlibrary loan partnerships
- Directed use of the $1.5M Stellingwerf gift including improving library primary resource collections and the renovation of the Music Library. The renovation process included an interactive workshop with library staff to create direct input in planning
- As Interim Dean of the Graduate School, created a housing waiver program for graduate students and led successful renewal of the McNair grant
